Dear Parents,

Children's author Sarah Warren will join us for a visit on / / . Ms. Warren works hard to connect children with stories about diverse leaders. Her presentation includes:

- A reading from her book about human rights activist Dolores Huerta.
- Art activities that will teach your child to explore the difference between super heroes and real-life heroes.
- Music and Movement activities that develop positive leadership and teambuilding skills.

Ms. Warren is happy to sign books for your family. Please fill out the form attached at the bottom and return it by / / . Please contact your local library if you want to check out the book and share Dolores' story with your child before Ms. Warren's visit.

Sincerely,

Dolores Huerta: A Hero To Migrant Workers
